

2024 Vanderkooi Endowed Lectureship

Join us February 9, 2024, for the 31st Annual Vanderkooi Endowed Lectureship

"Every Moment Counts: Occupational Therapy's Distinct Value in Mental Health Promotion, Prevention, and Intervention" by Dr. Susan Bazyk

Hosted by Texas Woman's University School of Occupational Therapy – Dallas Center
The event will be in-person, with a virtual option.

1:00pm-3:30pm (schedule below)

This is a free event, but we welcome contributions to our student scholarship fund.

About Vanderkooi

The Vanderkooi Endowed Lectureship was established in 1993 to honor the first program director of occupational therapy at Texas Woman's University, Fanny B. Vanderkooi. The lectureship celebrates the School of Occupational Therapy's legacy of commitment to vision, professional values, and leadership development in occupational therapy education, practice, and research.

For more information on the 31st Annual Endowed Lectureship, visit our website here.

Register today! For any questions, email Jennie Martin at jmartin28@twu.edu

In-Person Registration

Webinar Registration

Please consider contributing to the student scholarship fund.

(Select Gift Type and Amount; under Designation choose Other and type in Occupational Therapy Scholarship Fund)

Schedule:

- 1:00-1:15pm Welcome and introductions
- 1:15-2:30pm Lecture
- 2:30-2:45pm Intermission
- 2:45-3:30pm Panel discussion
- 3:30-4:30pm Reception at TWU
- 4:30-6:30pm Optional dinner at Casa Rosa