

About Jacqueline Stevenson

Position:

Alamo South - District Secretary

Education:

Post-Professional Occupational Therapy Doctorate (OTD), Mary Baldwin University, conferred on December 16, 2022. Master of Occupational Therapy (MOT), Texas Woman's University, awarded on December 12, 2015. Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA), American Military University, completed on May 15, 2009. Associate of Applied Science in Occupational Therapy Assistant, Pueblo Community College

Current Employment:

Dr. Jacqueline Stevenson has been a dedicated member of the faculty at St. Philip's College in San Antonio, Texas, since August 2016. She began her tenure as an Instructor in the Occupational Therapy Assistant Program and has since advanced to the role of Program Director and Associate Professor. In this capacity, she leads the program's curriculum development and oversees the training of future occupational

TOTA Involvement:

Dr. Jacqueline Stevenson, OTD, OTR, is a committed member of the Texas Occupational Therapy Association (TOTA), actively promoting professional engagement among her students and faculty at St. Philip's College. While she does not currently hold a formal leadership position within TOTA, Dr. Stevenson ensures that all participants in the Occupational Therapy Assistant Program maintain active memberships and attend TOTA conferences. This commitment is reflected in the program's inclusion of professional memberships in its cost structure, underscoring the importance of active participation in the occupational therapy community.

Position Statement:

Dr. Jacqueline Stevenson is an ideal candidate for the TOTA Secretary position due to her leadership, organizational excellence, and dedication to the profession. She hosts weekly program and advisory board meetings, ensuring clear, effective communication. A former Regional Director of Rehabilitation, she brings administrative expertise and a strong commitment to advancing occupational therapy through active TOTA engagement.